A WEEKLY JOURNAL, IDENTICAL IN INTEREST WITH ITS OWN PEOPLE.

VOL. IX

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1900.

NO. 11

Col. Bennett H. Young

At Mt. Sterling.

HIS SPEECH IS LOGICAL AND CONCLUSIVE.

HE LAYS BARE REPUBLICAN METHODS

That The Common People May See Their Unmasked Leaders.

COL. YOUNG IS A SINGLE STANDARD DEMOCRAT THOROUGHLY IN LINE WITH HIS COUNTRY.

Although much in public life during the last thirty years, I have taken no part in political discussions. It would be useless therefore for me to tell you that I am no politician, and that in coming into your midst now to discuss with you the pending political issues I come simply as your fellow citizen without any political ambition, purpose or plan and with the statement that there is no office that the people of my State could give me which, under any circumstances, I could be induced to accept.

It may always be said of Kentucky that their patriotism and their State pride as well as their State love are not surpassed by that of any other people in the world.

We love the splendid memories that gather about the heroes of our fathers, and the sons of Kentucky for all the people of this State, the highest and best result which could possibly fall upon any government.

I have not come to indulge in any vituperation or abuse of my fellow-citizens who differ from me on the great questions which now distract the public mind of Kentucky. In the course of argument which I shall make, it will be necessary to speak plain, honest words. We would not be true to ourselves or the principles we defend if we were afraid to call a spade a spade, but in discussing these events which have taken place in our State in the last eleven months, I would not be worthy of the great party which has sent me forth to deal with these matters unless I spoke frankly and earnestly and I desire to say in advance that I would not willingly or knowingly wound the feelings of any person on the battlefield or in the political arena. And indeed in all the departments of life—have been such as to make us feel that we have sprung from a race of patriots and men who in their devotion to duty, in their courage in the discharge of all the obligations of life have deserved well of their fellow men; and whatever may be our differences, fellow-citizens, today, upon the political issues which are involved in the canvass, I trust in the hearts of all present goes up a profound desire for Heaven's blessing on our glorious Commonwealth and all its people and whatever we may do, we will do it at least from an honest conviction that we are right and from an earnest desire to secure for all the people of this State, the highest and best result which could possibly fall upon any government. I have not come to indulge in any vituperation or abuse of my fellow-citizens who differ from me on the great questions which now distract the public mind of Kentucky. In the course of argument which I shall make, it will be necessary to speak plain, honest words. We would not be true to ourselves or the principles we defend if we were afraid to call a spade a spade, but in discussing these events which have taken place in our State in the last eleven months, I would not be worthy of the great party which has sent me forth to deal with these matters unless I spoke frankly and earnestly and I desire to say in advance that I would not willingly or knowingly wound the feelings of any

ROYAL

The absolutely pure
BAKING POWDER

ROYAL—the most celebrated of all the baking powders in the world—celebrated for its great leavening strength and purity. It makes your cakes, biscuit, bread, etc., healthful; it assures you against alum and all forms of adulteration that go with the cheap brands.

Alum baking powders are low priced, as alum costs but two cents a pound; but alum is a corrosive poison and it renders the baking powder dangerous to use in food.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

tion and upon their decision, in a large measure, may hinge the liberty, prosperity and happiness of the American people, for at least the next ten years.

The people of the United States must either destroy trusts—which means government by money power—or that same trust and money power will destroy them.

As now constituted, with a protective tariff and with unlimited power in individuals to control the manufacturing output and to fix the price of a large number of the necessities of life, to close hundreds of factories at will and shut out labor from factories as exogenes may require or are directed by one man or by one single plan—which means to make people pay the highest price possible for any given article—is a condition which is not in harmony with the spirit of our free institutions, the existence of which is not possible if liberty shall be preserved.

The right on the part of the law-making power to decree that one citizen of the United States shall be free and that the other shall not, that one citizen must pay for acts that the other shall not pay, that one citizen shall have rights that the other does not have, is a disturbance of the cardinal principles of the Declaration of Independence, which, as written by Thomas Jefferson, is the title deed to human liberty.

The use of a standing army, the declaration that the United States may go into the uttermost part of the earth and buy or conquer territory—which right is claimed alone on the ground that it will help the markets of the United States—in the end will destroy the republican institutions of this country and end in anarchy and ruin. Sooner or later the people of this country will be compelled, if the constitution does not now prohibit such things, to pass amendments as will restrict such acquisitions of territory and consequent government over the citizens thereof.

Therefore, fellow-citizens, in discussing the State issues, I do not mean in any way to lessen or minimize the dangers which beset this country through Republican domination, nor the necessity for the people to arise and destroy this new doctrine and these new interpretations of the constitution, which, as I said before, mean the destruction of liberty. The Republican party in Kentucky leadership of Mr. Yerkes parades itself before the people of Kentucky as the defender of civil liberty, to look into both their past and present purposes and also to examine thoroughly the foundation on which they base what they call civil liberty.

This cry of civil liberty is based upon a pretended objection to what is known as the Goebel Law, and fellow-citizens, in so far as the Goebel Law is concerned—for which Mr. Goebel was not really responsible—I am perfectly frank to say that its enactment was a mistake; that whether the law was right or wrong the condition of the public mind in Kentucky was not such as to demand or even to receive such legislation.

But in the operation of the Goebel law, it has been shown that while it is not worse than that of some other States, notably that of Ohio and Virginia, yet it does give what the majority of the best men in Kentucky think is due to political opponents and that its provisions are liable under unprincipled and designing men to be used for selfish purposes. Nobody saw this quicker or knew it better than Mr. Goebel himself. I was with him certainly not more than fifteen minutes before he received the fatal shot—having gone to confer with him about the order of argument which was that morning to begin before the contest boards. In discussing the political situation, I then urged upon him, so soon as he should be declared Governor, the necessity and importance, in my opinion, of convening the Legislature and making such accommodations to the Goebel Law as experience and discussion had shown were necessary to the harmony of the Democratic party in Kentucky.

Mr. Goebel frankly conceded all that I had said and assured me that in a very short time after he was inaugurated as Governor he purposed and intended to call a special session of the Legislature, one of the objects of which should be to remove from the Goebel Law the objections, which had been so strenuously urged against it by the people of the State; and I have no doubt that, had he lived, he would have carried out this intention and his Declaration, but Mr. Goebel has been killed—murdered atrociously.

The Democratic party in this State has always been a party that demanded fairness and justice and honesty not only in elections but in all public affairs.

For the purpose of using what limited influence I might have, I went to the Legislature during the pendency of legislation in regard to that law and urged upon the few people with whom I had personal relations and possibly might have personal influence, to vote against its enactment and while not pretending to be wiser than other people, I then foresaw the opposition which it would arouse among the thinking men of the State.

Whatever else may be said about the Democratic party, whatever may be said that is unkind or ungenerous about the people of Kentucky, nobody questions either the physical or moral courage of the people of the State of Kentucky and when the people of this Commonwealth believe they are right and that a wrong has been done, no party influence, no party power can stifle the utterance of their convictions or their protest against that which they believe wrong.

There were moving causes behind this clamor against the Goebel Law. It was directed by men who were shrewd enough and smart enough to utilize the patriotism and courage of many of the best men in Kentucky in opposition to this Goebel Law and to cause them to sever the affiliations of long years and to separate themselves temporarily from the Democratic party in which they so firmly believed and for which they had always made trust and most stubborn defense.

The Democratic party, in a mainly, straightforward and patriotic way, has called the Legislature together to consider this question of the election law and to provide a law which, at least to fair and just thinking men, will be as unpartisan as such election laws usually are.

It is very difficult ordinarily to per-

ALWAYS SO.

Kentucky is not alone in having a carpet bag citizenship which came in from the North & East & which up to a very recent date have been loud mouthed in proclaiming their unswerving fealty to Democratic doctrine. Such fellows have been looked upon with a degree of suspicion. Their party loyalty was tested the very moment hopes for Republican domination were apparent. They were always vicious, treacherous Republicans as was Judas a traitor. True Democrats are returning to the party but these carpet baggers like the hog have returned to their wallow.

No man ever resorted to more demagoguery than does the Republican candidate for Governor. He said in his speech at Carrollton, in referring to an editorial of the Courier Journal in which it pleads for character rather than stiffening of backbone, that this is an admission that the Democrats are without character. What think the people of a man that would thus construe the editorial of a sincere man? The Courier Journal in its demands is in sympathy with all good citizens and has their approval. The comment of Yerkes but indicates the real feeling of the man towards the Democratic party. The single standard, anti-Grobel and regulars as a matter of fact are of the same class to be beamed at any time either wing would refuse aid to his party. Yerkes' statements, like Hayman's rope, hangs himself.

The Democrat published at Lexington, Ky. is a new daily paper which made its first appearance Monday. It is owned by a stock company and is edited by editor Walden. It is Democratic free from all taints.

Every man, even though a Republican, should carefully read the speech of Col. Bennett H. Young in this issue.

The county of Montgomery will go Democratic.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somewhat the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

Mass Meeting.

At a Mass Meeting of the Democrats of Montgomery County, held at the Courthouse at 2 o'clock p. m. on Sept. 24th, 1900, at Mt. Sterling, Ky., the meeting was called to order by H. R. Prewitt, Esq. county chairman, who stated the objects of the meeting, namely, to select delegates to attend a convention of the 7th. Appellate District to be held at Winchester, Ky., on Saturday, Sept. 29th, to nominate a Democratic Candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals. On motion A. A. Hazellrigg was elected chairman and Squire Turner and J. W. Hodges, Secretaries. The following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted, to-wit:

1. Resolved, that we view with great pride and satisfaction the brilliant and just course of our line in the countyman, Judge J. H. Hazellrigg, on the bench, and congratulate him and the State upon the great and useful record he has made, and regret that he does not stand for re-election.

2. Do it further resolved that we recognize in the person of Judge W.

DEATHS.

CLARK.

Joseph Clark, a prominent business man of Lexington, for many years of the firm Parsons & Clark, was buried on Thursday.

REID.

Mrs. Nettie Reid, wife of J. Davis Reid, died at their country home near this city on Wednesday morning, September 19, 1900. Recently she returned from Richmond where she had been waiting on her daughter, Mrs. D. M. Chesnut, who said she was attacked with typhoid fever and later with bright's disease. The funeral service was held at the residence on Thursday morning by Rev. L. B. Clark and W. T. Tibbs. The body was laid to rest in the Winchester cemetery. She was born in this county February 4, 1844, and was a sister of W. H. Prewitt, of this county and of Messias Gay and Goff, of Clark. In 1866 she became the wife of J. Davis Reid. To them were born nine children of whom seven are living—W. H., of New York; Mrs. D. M. Chesnut, of Richmond; J. Coleman, Walker and Henry, and Misses Carolyn and Math. Vaumeter. Since young womanhood she has been a member of the Christian church. Her devotion to her husband and children was beautiful, and those who have visited her home will with pleasure recall her social and genial manner and beautiful hospitality. She has entered into the inheritance of the people of God. To the members of the family we extend our sympathy and commend them to the great physician—the sympathizing Jesus.

DOLAN.

On the 22d instant in Fayette county wife of Patrick Dolan. A good motherly woman was she who never turned the needy away, while or black rich or poor. "Be kindly and good" was her life motto. Rest, shelter, raiment, food and sympathy were ever found at her home.

Christian Endeavor Convention of Fourth District.

This district embraces 14 counties. Its convention will be held in this city on Oct. 5, 6 and 7, beginning on Friday evening. The delegates in attendance usually number from 75 to 100. We have not seen the program. It must be a splendid one. If the Committee has not already called upon you, respond as generously as you can. Let all invite to add to the interest and success of the meeting, thereby sustaining the reputation of our citizens for hospitality.

A gentleman recently cured of dyspepsia gave the following appropriate rendering of Burns' famous blessing. "Some have meat and cannot eat, and some have none that want it; but we have meat and we can eat,—Kool's Dyspepsia Cure be thanked." This preparation will digest your food. It instantly relieves and radically cures indigestion and all stomach disorders.

MARRIAGES.

MITCHELL-WEAVER.

Instead of the conventional description of a wedding, how much more entertaining would be a breezy sketch of the prospective bride and maids, as they appear behind the scenes, in the busy busy of a preparation surrounded by the impediments indispensable to such an occasion, with the inevitable accompaniment of laughter, merry gibes, and odorous perfume, and the more serious assemblage in the neighboring hotel of the groom and his satellites: except the one would be too sacred and the other rather too profane for the eyes and ears of the public. To see several young men about 5 minutes late in the agony of preparation for a wedding inevitably brings tears (of laughter) to the eyes of the spectator and on the morrow less profound to the lips of the delighted actors;
it would be hard to determine which is the most provocative of laughter and profanity—a first encounter with an Aspidochelone—the at-same old expression of "Me next!"

The groom was escorted by his cousin, Ed Mitchell, and the bride by her father, Dr. Weaver, a courtly and handsome man. I am sure if Punch could have seen the well-matted couple as they stood facing the large audience he would not have had the heart to give his well-known advice of "Don't!"

The bride was dressed in a most becoming gray cloth travelling suit with hat to match, and carried the regulation bunch of roses. She is a beauty and was the most composed member of the little group, her attitude being graceful and her responses distinct. Mrs. Allie Fisher presided at the piano and Mrs.
Allie Dixon sang most acceptably a song of "Perfect Love" and when the wedding party had reached their appointed stations, she continued singing solo-voice through the ceremony.

On entering the church I thought I had never seen so many pretty girls together, but on leaving I could only see two. Miss K. of St.
Louis, and Miss L. L. of Bourbon, however either of them are sufficient to fill the eye of any ordinary mortal.

Quite a number of Mt. Sterling people were present: Mr. R. A.
Mitchell and Mother (the father and grandmother of the groom),
Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Chiles, Miss
Bruce Chiles, Dr. and Mrs. H. Van
Antwerp, Judge and Mrs. H. C.
McKee, Prof. and Mrs. Goodwin and daughter, Mr. Joel Feeler and wife, Mr. William Turner and Miss Minnie Duerson, Mr. Lawless Ga-
wood and Miss Kate Everett.

Mr. Mitchell and wife came on to Mt. Sterling the same evening, taking the 9:45 train for New York and will sail for Europe on Tuesday morning. C. T. L.

DUFF-PIERATT.

The marriage of Charlie Duff, of Spencer, this county, and Miss Lizzie Pieratt, daughter of the well known merchant, J. M. Pieratt, of Ez 1, Morgan county, will occur at the bride's home this Tuesday morning, September 25, 1900, at 8 o'clock.
The ceremony will be performed by B. W. Trimble, of this city, who is cousin of the bride. The groom is 21 years old, is an energetic and prosperous farmer and an excellent young man. The bride, 19 years old, is quite beautiful and of pleasing manner. Immediately after the ceremony they will come to the groom's home where a few friends will greet them in the evening. Our best wishes attend them.

FOLEY-SHEIL.

Today at the St. Paul church, Lexington, Rev. James P. Barrow officiating, Mr. E. J. Foley, of this city, will be married to Miss Sophia Sheil, of Salina, Ala. They will take an excursion bridal trip South and West and will be home in this city in ten days.

COUGHS KILL

We know of nothing better than coughing to tear the lining of your throat and lungs. It is better than wet feet to cause bronchitis and pneumonia. Only keep it up and you will succeed in reducing your weight, losing your appetite, bringing on a slow fever, and making everything exactly right for the germs of consumption. Better kill your cough before it kills you.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

kills coughs of every kind. A 25 cent bottle is just right for an ordinary cough; for the harder coughs of bronchitis you will need a 50 cent bottle; and for the coughs of consumption, the one dollar size is most economical.

"My cough reduced me to a mere skeleton. I tried many remedies, but they all failed. After using the Cherry Pectoral I immediately began to improve, and three bottles restored me to health. I believe I owe my life to it."

SARAH F. MORRIS, Oct. 4, 1898. Brownstown, Va.

The First Cincinnati Fall Festival

One Hundred Thousand Dollars have been set aside for the festivities of the Cincinnati Fall Festival, September 19 to 20. An Industrial Exposition is the leading feature. All the famous permanent exposition buildings will be occupied. There is over 100,000 square feet of space, and will be filled with new, novel, instructive and interesting exhibits. Cincinnati originated Industrial Expositions in the United States, and the present one promises to be more attractive and novel than ever before.

$1,000 in Gold will be given for the best float in the great Trades and Manufacturers Parade. A gorgeous Flower Parade, the greatest spectacle ever witnessed in Cincinnati, will be a feature of the festival. The Plaza will cover both sides of the canal for many thousand feet, filled with new amusements from all parts of the world—a new and modern Midway Pleasure.

In the Great Springer Music Hall, one of the largest and most famous auditoriums in America, spectacular allegory will be given with grand cast and gorgeous scenery. New costumes and luring music.

The opening of the festival will be heralded by booming of cannon, ringing of bells, and the welcoming ceremonies in honor of the Harvest Queen, whose royal barge will be met on its way down the Ohio, and who will be escorted in grand state to a grand reception at Springer Hall. Novel and elaborate fireworks display will be made from moving boats.

The Zoo, Coney Island, and other summer resorts will have special programs.

A day will be set apart for the Grades Union of the city, and another day devoted to a Monster Athletic Carnival. Cincinnati cordially invites her neighbors to participate in these festivities. Low rate excursions will be run daily via Queen & Crescent dunes and other special excursions for days upon which especially interesting portions of the vast program of festivities and amusements take place.

No Relief For 20 Years.

"I had bronchitis for twenty years," said Mrs. Minerva Smith of Louisville, "and at times have been bedfast. I never got relief until I had taken Foley's Honey and Tar. It is pleasant and gives quick relief, and is a cure cure for throat and lung diseases." Take nothing else.

Sold by F. C. Duerksen, druggist.

Rev. J. M. Long, of the Baptist Tabernacle, New Albany, refused to marry a couple last week, on the ground that the woman had previously been divorced. The Ledger in commenting upon it gave the following appropriate advice to the clergy: "If all ministers of the gospel would live up to the rules of their churches as Rev. J. M. Long has done in refusing to unite in marriage divorced parties, the divorce business would soon be unpopular. The rules of some of the Protestant churches as to those of the Catholic church, forbid the marriage by their pastors of persons who have been divorced. The strict adherence to these rules by clergymen would speedily work a reform in the present startling prevalence of divorce. This needed reform is within the power of the clergy and they should use that power without hesitation and with emphasis."

For a unique and positively refreshing performance, Isham's "King Rastus" Company certainly takes the lead and has set the pace for all other similar organizations. The novelty of presenting a semi-operative comedy by colored stars has proved a pleasant surprise and created a furore everywhere. The company, numbering thirty-five, is composed of such artists as Billy Kersands, Smart & Williams, Malloy Bros. & Brooks, S. H. Dudley and others. The production is carried complete, the scenic effects, costuming, etc., being described as gorgeous. "King Rastus" holds court at the Opera House, Saturday, September 29th.

After many intricate experiments scientists have discovered methods for obtaining all the natural digestives. These have been combined in the proportion found in the human body and united with sub-tanases that build up the digestive organs, making a compound called Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and allows all dyspepsias to eat plenty of nourishing food while the stomach troubles are being radically cured by the medical agency it contains. It is pleasant to take and will give quick relief.

For sale by F. C. Duerksen, druggist.

"My wife," he said proudly, "has been known as the queen of hearts."

"No doubt," they answered: "it was because she took the knife," Chicago Post.

Foley's Kidney Cure

It is a pure medicine, and contains in concentrated form, remedies recognized by the most skillful of the medical profession as the most effective agents for the cure of kidney and bladder diseases.

Sold by F. C. Duerksen, druggist.

"He—I wish I knew, darling, just where to take you on our wedding journey."

"Silly—Oh, don't let that worry you, dear, I don't mind seeing the same place twice—Detroit Press."

It has been demonstrated by experience that consumption can be prevented by the early use of Our Minute Cough Cure. This is the favorite remedy for coughs, colds, croup, asthma, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Cures quickly.

For sale by F. C. Duerksen, druggist.

A schoolkeeper is reported as saying that the church could beat the saloon every time were it not that they work seven days, while the church gives only one day in seven to defeating the elements upon which the saloon rests. Of course the man is mistaken in the conclusion that the churches try to do all their work on Sunday. Nevertheless, there is altogether too much truth in it.

E. W. Brown

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets

The most inviting of coming attractions, one which will convulse all conditions of people, is Isham's Company of colored artists, in his new Musical Farce Comedy, "King Rastus," which opens at the Opera House, Saturday, September 29th.

THREE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Almost A Daily—At the Price of a Weekly

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Three-a-Week edition of the New York World, and with the Presidential campaign now in hand you can not do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is the leader in dollar a year journal.

It is issued every other day, and is for all purposes a daily.

Every week each subscriber receives 14 pages and often during the "busy" season 24 pages each week.

The price is only $1.00 per year. It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly.

Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand alone and furnish such service.

The Three-a-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—the wonder of modern journalism—America's Greatest Newspaper, as it has been justly termed—the New York World.

Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the Presidential campaign coming on.

The best of current fiction is found in its columns.

These are only some of the reasons there are others. Let it and see them all.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE ADVOCATE together one year for $1.65

The regular subscription price of the two papers in $2.00

Lecture Course.

Hon. Geo. R. Wendling, Gov. Rob Taylor, Hon. A. H. Taylor, Hon. Luther Manship and Dr. Homer T. Wilson, the five greatest platform orators now before the public, have been secured to deliver their lectures in this city during the coming season. Mr. Wendling opens the course in October. This is the greatest literary treat ever offered to our people, and packed houses should greet each lecturer.
